Plan a Harvest Getaway at Cambria Inns this Fall

Oceanfront Hotel Collection Gets Guests Close to Seasonal Festivals, Wine Events and More

CAMBRIA, CA (June 12, 2013) – Reap the rewards of the California Central Coast’s sunniest season with a festive visit to the Cambria Inns this fall. The collection of four beachfront boutique hotels in picturesque Cambria, CA, beckons visitors with breathtaking ocean views and a warm and welcoming home base from which to explore a host of fun harvest activities, from festivals to wine events and more.

Located just steps from the pristine and rugged coastline of Moonstone Beach, the hotels, which include the luxurious Blue Dolphin Inn (pictured left) and private Moonstone Cottages, the family-friendly Castle Inn and the cozy Sand Pebbles Inn, are just a short drive from Big Sur, Hearst Castle, Paso Robles Wine Country and San Luis Obispo.

Vacationing couples and families can find Indian summer temperatures (farewell summer fog!) and convenient access to endless adventures this fall, including:

- THE CAMBRIA SCARECROW FESTIVAL October 1-31

For the entire month of October, Cambria’s East and West Villages and Moonstone Drive will be lined with hundreds of the most creative, artistic and lively scarecrows, offering a surreal seasonal scene. Visitors can spot their favorites while they browse Cambria’s quaint independent boutiques and fine art galleries, sample award-winning restaurants and tasting rooms, and meander the Moonstone Beach boardwalk. www.cambriascarecrows.com (Photo right courtesy Scarecrow Festival website)

- HEARST CASTLE “LIVING HISTORY” EVENING TOURS Fridays & Saturdays, October 1-December 31

Experience a rare glimpse of Hearst’s social life with the start of seasonal evening tours featuring docents dressed in character and recreating scenes from the grand estate’s 1930s heyday. In addition to a comprehensive twilight tour, visitors will witness regal “guests” of the bygone era lounging by the Neptune Pool and playing cards in the Assembly Room, as well as the household staff who served them. www.hearstcastle.com

- PASO ROBLES HARVEST WINE WEEKEND October 18-20

With a multitude of wineries located just minutes from the Cambria Inns on lush Highway 46 West, guests can easily partake in Paso Robles Wine Country’s busiest and most celebrated time of year – harvest! Wine revelers will be treated to gorgeous rolling hills of red and gold and the scent of ripened fruit while exploring more than 130 winery weekend events, from vineyard tours, grape stomps, winemaker dinners, special tastings and more.
